His Story

Reverend Doctor Andrew Louis Wall was born March 15, 1937 to the union of Selena and James E. Wall, Sr. who preceded him in death. The Wall Family moved to Riverside, California in 1943. The family united with the 11th Street Church of God in Christ where Andrew accepted Christ as his personal Saviour.

Dr. Wall received his formal education through the Riverside Unified School District and graduated from Poly High School in 1954, he received an A.A. Degree from Riverside City College in 1956.

Dr. Wall was inducted into the U.S. Army, June 21, 1957 and honorably discharged from active duty on June 19, 1959.

Dr. Wall was united in Holy Matrimony with Anna Elizabeth Swan, December 20, 1959. To this union was born five children; Pamela Rochelle, Celia LaLene, Sara Selena, Andrea Louise, and James E. Wall, II.

Dr. Wall's educational accomplishments include a Bachelor of Science Degree from California Baptist University, Riverside, California. A Master of Education Degree from California State University at Long Beach, California and finally, a Doctorate Degree from New Mexico State University in Las Cruces, New Mexico.

Professionally, Dr. Wall accepted the position, Director of Black Programs at New Mexico State University where he designed programs to meet the social, psychological, academic, and spiritual needs of Black Students, from all parts America. He was well known for his ability to recruit, retain, and graduate black students. Many of whom earned their Doctorate Degree. In 1980, he established the BASHA Gospel Choir for the spiritual enrichment of the Black Students. Dr. Wall retired from New Mexico State University in August 1997.

Dr. Wall's activities extended far beyond the boundaries of the University. In the local community of Las Cruces, he served as President of the (N.A.A.C.P.) National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and was a member of the Las Cruces City Planning and Zoning Commission; for the State of New Mexico, he served as Vice Chairman of the Corrections Commission.

Being politically astute, Dr. Wall was a founding member of New Mexico's Black Political Action Committee. He also was a Board Member of the Sheryl Williams Stapleton African American Performing Arts Center and Exhibit Hall; where exists a Historic Pictorial Display of Early Black Settlers in Vado and Dona Ana County New Mexico.

Dr. Wall's most rewarding and proudest accomplishments was his participation in the naming of an Academic Hall at New Mexico State University: The Clara Belle Williams Hall. Clara Belle Williams was the first black graduate from New Mexico State University.

Dr. Wall has been spiritual from his youth, loving the Lord and going to church where he could listen to good preaching. He devoted himself to the work of the Lord serving as the Church Musician, Sunday School Superintendent and President of the Choir.

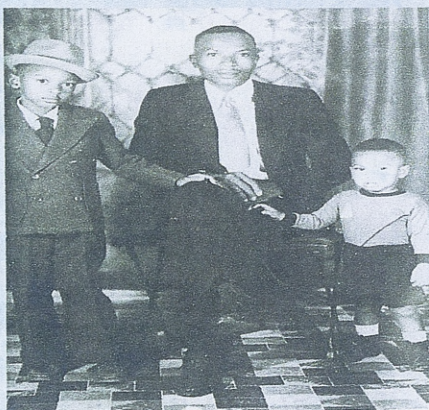

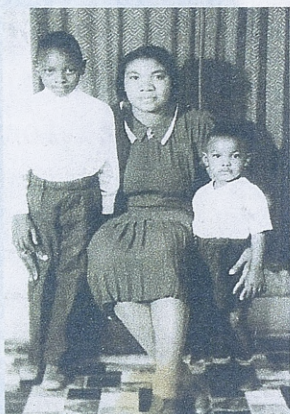

Dr. Wall acknowledged his call to the ministry and was ordained by the late Bishop Feltus King. He served faithfully as a member of Holy Light Church of God in Christ under the leadership of Pastor Juan Lawson. In 2004, Dr. Wall was ordained and appointed First Administrative Assistant to Bishop Lawson of the Texas West Fellowship.

Having retired from his position at New Mexico State University, Dr. Wall resigned from the Assistant position to Bishop Lawson and focused on a new mission, St. James Church in Riverside, California as the Assistant to his brother Pastor Jesse J. Wall.

Dr. Wall also served as a member of the Board of Directors for the J. E. Wall Victoria Manor. His wisdom, keen insight, and willingness to engage in hard work has served as a catalyst to the growth and development of both the church and the J.E. Wall Victoria Manor, a 112 unit low-cost Senior Housing Development.
